Bucky of Belgravia

By Alden Douglas

Belgrave Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In Alden Douglas hilarious and heartfelt comic novel, two unlikely partners—one American, one Russian—pool their talents to build and operate London's most exclusive bordello. Wrapped within this outer story is an unforgettable romantic adventure. Confident, brilliant, but dangerously naive, Bucky Newman boards the red-eye to London, eager to take on his first international assignment and fulfill his promises to his family back in Buffalo. A supremely talented IT consultant, his skills have made him a man in global demand. Bucky assumes his live-in girlfriend Dayna will soon follow him across the pond, and that romance will flourish along with career success. But a drunken argument with a blowhard client quickly costs him both his job and his girl, and sends his life in a wildly different direction. In a pub in seedy Tottenham he encounters Yuri Dolgorukov, the construction manager for a wealthy and ambitious oligarch. Yuri throws Bucky a much-needed lifeline—a chance to build and manage a private gentlemen's club in Belgrave Square. The only catch: under its glittering exterior, the club will be...
