Excerpt: . . . 11 ter of time and we will have that charter approved by both departments. ETERSON Mr. P. Well, my experience with State government, and the Federal is worse, is that time doesn't seem to matter with a lot of agencies. You really have to put the stick to them. OSWORTH Mr. B. This is very important to us. It is very high priority, so we will be doing whatever we can to make sure that we have the agreement. Mr. P. Well, I will reiterate here the words of the ETERSON Chairman, not speaking for myself but for the Chairman, that if it isn't forthcoming he is going to start the legislative process to move in that direction. So, I think a word to the wise is sufficient. What are the impacts to your agency on OMB holding back 280 million OSWORTH Mr. B. Well, there are 280 million that I requested in a letter to the Secretary that the 280 million was appropriated last year. It was appropriated as emergency funding to be released. I think in my request I actually requested 346 million to be re-leased. The Department forwarded on a request of 280 million. About 200 million of that thereabouts was to pay back some of the money that we spent last year during the fire season. The other 80 million had to do with circumstances for this fiscal year. There are some consequences to not having the 280 million. Probably...
