Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Franklin College of Indiana: Accredited in Classes A B and C, Alumni Number 1910 A college does not exist exclusively for its undergraduates, for the four years of work offered in its curriculum. Special attention should be given to means of continuing the interest of all who have ever been her students, both graduates and non-graduates, for making a real Alma Mater, a home center for all of her children throughout their lives. As a factor to this end Franklin College has decided to devote one number of its Bulletin each year to alumni affairs. This first number contains the plan of the new organization of the Alumni Association, and so far as we have been able to secure the data, a brief record of all graduates. No complete catalog has hitherto been issued and the college records are not complete. The work of the present issue has therefore involved a great amount of correspondence, and owing to the fact that we are unable to get any response from a considerable number we have been obliged to insert the names without any record. In such cases we have given in parenthesis the last address obtainable and marked rec. inc. (record incomplete) after it. Kindly help us to fill out these blanks for our next general catalog and for our permanent college records. Any information concerning deceased alumni, or the names of friends who could give such information will be welcome. We have gathered a considerable amount of data concerning non-graduates, but it will require another year to make anything like a satisfactory showing, so we have omitted them entirely from this issue. Please help us...
